MEDIA INFORMATION & POLICIES

The Texas Media Relations Department welcomes your interest in UT athletics. We make every effort to facilitate your coverage of our programs. The Communications office maintains information on all current student-athletes and coaches, as well as historical information on previous athletes and staff members. If you need any information about the Texas Baseball program, please contact Assistant Media Relations Director Kevin Rodriguez at (817) 528-7402 or via e-mail at KRod@utexas.edu.

CREDENTIALS

Credentials are issued to members of the working media only. Work space in the press box at UFCU Disch-Falk Field is limited. Requests should be made via email to Kevin Rodriguez (e-mail: KRod@utexas.edu) in advance of the season or on an individual game basis. Please make requests at least 24 hours in advance. All passes will be available at the will call window of the UFCU Disch-Falk Field ticket office. There is a five-minute parking area along the curb at UFCU Disch-Falk Field. You may pull up there to pick up your credential pack.

INTERVIEWS

All interviews should be arranged through the Media Relations Office. We will do our best to coordinate an interview time that is convenient to both the student-athlete or coach and media member. The best time to interview an athlete or head coach is in the afternoon before practice or following each game. After a game, the head coach will meet with his team, do a brief interview with the Longhorn Radio Network and then meet with the media. Following individual games, players will be available upon request after a 10-minute cooling-off period. They will be brought in front of the first-base dugout for those interviews. All interview requests should be provided to a Texas Media Relations representative in the press box prior to the conclusion of the game. The UT clubhouse is closed to the media. Contact Kevin Rodriguez for practice times and pre-practice media availability.

MEDIA SERVICES

Press releases, including individual and team statistics, as well as information on upcoming games/series, will be available prior to each contest. On game days, the media relations staff distributes individual and team statistics as well as any pertinent pregame information. For e-mail service, please contact Kevin Rodriguez either in person, via phone or through e-mail.

INTERNET/SOCIAL MEDIA

All of the latest news concerning the Longhorns baseball team, including notes, features, updated statistics, bios, live scoring, live audio and results, is available 24 hours a day on The University of Texas' official athletics web site: TexasSports.com. You can follow the Longhorn baseball program on Twitter (@TexasBaseball) and Instagram (@TexasBaseball).

PHOTOGRAPHY

DAVID PIERCE 22

FULL NAME David Ray Pierce DATE OF BIRTH October 13, 1962 HOMETOWN Houston, Texas

HIGH SCHOOL St. Pius X High School
JUNIOR COLLEGE Wharton County Junior College
ALMA MATER University of Houston, 1988

DATE ANNOUNCED AS HEAD COACH June 29, 2016 @DP5hookem

A Texas native who has spent most of his 30-year career coaching in the state, David Pierce was named head baseball coach at The University of Texas on June 29, 2016. Pierce, just the fifth Longhorn head coach since 1911 (with the exception of the war years of 1943-45 when Blair Cherry was at the helm), is the 13th head coach in 122 years of Texas baseball.

Entering his fourth season as the Longhorns' head coach, Pierce has an overall record of 108-74 at Texas and a 305-183 mark in eight seasons as a Division I head coach.

In just his second season at the helm in 2018, Pierce was named Baseball America's National Coach of the Year after guiding the Longhorns to a 42-23 record and back to the College World Series for the first time since 2014. With a 17-7 mark in league play, Pierce, who was named the Big 12 Conference Coach of the Year, led his team to the Big 12 Conference title—the first conference title for Texas since 2011—and hosted both an NCAA Regional and an NCAA Super Regional. In the Austin Regional, the Longhorns went 3-0 with wins over Texas Southern, Texas A&M, and Indiana. In the Super Regional, Texas dropped game one to Tennessee Tech before taking games two and three to send Pierce to Omaha for the first time as head coach. The Longhorns finished ranked in the top eight in every major poll to close out the season and finished first in the nation in double plays (73) and ninth in triples (22). Under Pierce and his staff's tutelage, second baseman Kody Clemens completed one of the best offensive seasons in Texas history. A third-round draft pick by the Detroit Tigers, Clemens was named a unanimous first team All-American at second base, becoming the first to earn that honor under Pierce. Clemens, the ABCA National Player of the Year and a finalist for both the Dick Howser Trophy and the USA Baseball Golden Spikes Award, blasted 24 home runs on the year, good for second in the country and second-most in a single season in Texas Baseball history. Clemens also ranked nationally in total bases (second, 180), slugging percentage (fifth, .726), and RBI (12th, 72).

In his first season leading the Longhorns, Pierce led Texas to a 39-24 record, a 14-win improvement from the 2016 campaign. Texas came within one win of taking the Big 12 Conference tournament title before earning a No. 2 seed in the Long Beach Regional. Texas won its first two games of the regional before its season came to a close at the hands of LBSU. As a team, the Longhorns finished in the top 10 nationally in several statistical categories including double plays turned (fourth, 65), fielding percentage (fourth, .982), earned run average (ninth, 3.15), and hits allowed per nine innings (ninth, 7.60). Right-handed pitcher Morgan Cooper, a third team All-America selection, was taken in the second round of the MLB Draft, the first of 11 Longhorns to be selected in 2017, the most for any school. In Pierce's two seasons, a total of 16 Longhorns have been chosen in the draft.

The 57-year-old Pierce came to Texas from Tulane, where he spent the previous two seasons as head coach following a three-year stint at Sam Houston State in the same role. Pierce's teams have qualified for the NCAA tournament in seven years with him at the helm, and including his time as an assistant, Pierce was a part of programs that advanced to the postseason in 18 consecutive years, played in eight Super Regionals and reached five College World Series, winning a title in 2003 with Rice. In the summer of 2016, he was also named an assistant coach with the U.S. Collegiate National Team.

DAVID PIERCE

4th season at Texas | 9th season as head coach

Joining the Tulane Green Wave in 2015, the Houston native guided the school into its first season in the American Athletic Conference. His team posted a school-record nine shutouts, which ranked fourth in the nation, en route to a 35-25 record and the program's first regional appearance since 2008.

Pierce's second season at Tulane brought even more success as he led the 2016 Green Wave to a 41-21 record, a regular season AAC championship and a second-consecutive regional appearance. The 41 wins were the most for the program since 2006. The team led the nation with 13 shutouts and ranked in the top 25 in both ERA (23rd/3.24) and WHIP (25th/1.24), while belting out 66 home runs, which was tied for 13th nationally. Tulane produced two third-round picks in the 2016 Major League Baseball Draft in catcher Jake Rogers and shortstop Stephen Alemais with Rogers becoming Tulane's highest draft pick since 2008. Seven players earned All-AAC honors, including four first-team selections, while starting pitcher Ross Massey was named freshman All-America after leading the conference and tying for 18th in the nation in victories (10).

In three seasons as head coach at Sam Houston State, Pierce compiled a record of 121-63 (.658). During his tenure, the Bearkats made three straight NCAA Regional appearances for just the second time in program history. Sam Houston State was crowned Southland Conference champions in each of his three seasons (the program's only previous league title came in 1989), and Pierce was named the conference coach of the year in both 2012 and 2013. The recognition in back-to-back years made him the first Southland Conference coach to earn consecutive honors since UTSA's Sherman Corbett (2007-08).

In his first season as head coach in 2012, the Bearkats were ranked in each of the major Division I polls for the first time in program history. He was honored as an American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA) Regional Coach of the Year that season. In 2014, his final season in Huntsville, Pierce guided SHSU to a 43-19 record, the second-highest single-season win total for the Bearkats since they joined Division I in 1987. The team ranked in the top 25 in the nation and second in the conference in both ERA (17th/2.73) and hits (25th/610). It also led the conference in scoring (5.7 rpg), home runs (31) and slugging percentage (.390).

Throughout his three-year tenure at Sam Houston State, Pierce tutored eight MLB Draft selections. Of those picks, three came in the top-10 rounds, including fourth-round selection (No. 119 overall) Cody Dickson, the highest-ever pick out of Sam Houston State.

Before taking over at Sam Houston State, Pierce spent the previous nine seasons as an assistant coach at Rice. He served as hitting coach from 2003-05 before taking over as pitching coach from 2006-11. Under his tutelage, the 2003 Owls hit .313 with 51 homers and 449 RBI en route to the school's first-ever national title. In six seasons as the Owls' pitching coach, Pierce helped produce five staffs whose ERAs ranked in the NCAA top 30, peaking with the fourth-best mark in the nation in 2007. On that 2007 squad, two Pierce-coached pitchers received major Conference USA awards as Ryne Tacker was named C-USA Pitcher of the Year and Ryan Berry earned freshman of the year honors. Berry also earned Collegiate Baseball freshman of the year honors. In that year alone, eight Owl pitchers were selected in the MLB Draft, including the 19th overall pick, Joe Savery.

From 2006-11 under Pierce, 27 Owls pitchers were chosen in the MLB Draft, eight of which were selected in the first 10 rounds. In that span, Pierce tutored six NCAA All-America selections, two freshman All-America selections and a pair of CoSIDA Academic All-Americans in Eddie Degerman (2006) and Tacker (2007).

A native of Houston, Pierce was born on October 13, 1962. He and his wife, Susan, have two children – a daughter, Chelsea, who graduated from The University of Texas in 2012 and is married to husband Bryan Caffey, and a son, Shea, who played for his father at both Sam Houston (2012-15) and Tulane (2016).

IN JUST HIS SECOND SEASON AT THE HELM, PIERCE WAS NAMED BASEBALL AMERICA'S NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR AFTER GUIDING THE LONGHORNS TO A 42-23 RECORD AND BACK TO THE COLLEGE WORLD SERIES FOR THE FIRST TIME SINCE 2014.

SEAN ALLEN 9

DATE OF BIRTH June 27, 1979 HOMETOWN Carlsbad, N.M.

HIGH SCHOOL Carlsbad High School
ALMA MATER University of Houston, 2001

DATE ANNOUNCED AS ASSISTANT COACH July 1, 2016 @SeanAllen3

Sean Allen has served on David Pierce's staffs for the last eight seasons at Texas, Tulane and Sam Houston State. Most recently, Allen was associate head coach for the Green Wave before being named assistant coach at Texas on June 30, 2016.

Allen enters his first season as pitching coach in 2020 and continues as the Longhorns' recruiting coordinator, after serving as the Texas hitting coach and recruiting coordinator from 2017-19. In 2018, Allen helped the Longhorns to a .271 batting average, a .431 slugging percentage, and 62 home runs, the highest marks for a Texas team in the BBCOR era. With help from Allen, second baseman Kody Clemens produced one of the most impressive offensive seasons in Longhorns history to earn unanimous first team All-America honors. Additionally, under Allen's guidance, the Longhorns' 2018 recruiting class ranked No. 9 by Perfect Game.

Allen has strong ties to Texas thanks to his time with Pierce and his four-year playing career at the University of Houston (1998-2001), where he also coached from 2002-2007.

The Carlsbad, N.M., native came to the Longhorns with 15 years of coaching experience at the collegiate level. While at Tulane, he was Pierce's lead recruiter, playing a major part in leading Tulane to NCAA Regional appearances in both of his seasons in New Orleans.

In addition to recruiting, Allen worked primarily with hitters and infielders. Under his guidance, the Tulane offense pounded out 66 home runs to lead the American Athletic Conference and rank 13th in the nation in 2016. Tulane had three players hit double-digit home runs in a single season for the first time since 2005, while leading the AAC in slugging percentage (.423) and ranking second in runs scored (355), RBI (324) and walks (258).

Five hitters earned all-conference honors, including shortstop Stephen Alemais, who became a 2016 All-AAC First Team selection and a third-round pick (No. 105 overall) of the Pittsburgh Pirates in this year's Major League Baseball Draft.

Prior to Tulane, Allen served as an assistant coach with Pierce at Sam Houston State for three seasons. There, he helped the Bearkats to three straight Southland Conference titles, while receiving NCAA Regional berths in each of those seasons. In 2014, the team ranked 25th in the nation and second in the conference in hits (610). It also led the conference in scoring (5.7 rpg), home runs (31) and slugging percentage (.390).

From 2008 to 2011, Allen served as an assistant coach at Florida International University, where he was recruiting coordinator and pitching coach and assisted with the infielders. Allen helped the Panthers put together a 130-103-1 record, while also earning NCAA Regional berths in 2010 and 2011, and capturing the Sun Belt Conference title in 2010.

In his first full season as pitching coach in 2009, Allen was instrumental in turning around FIU's staff. After finishing at or near the bottom of the Sun Belt in 2008 in various categories, his tutelage turned the Panthers' staff into one of the conference's best. For most of 2009, FIU led the conference in ERA, while the Panthers finished with the lead in strikeouts and surrendered the fewest walks with a single-season school record low of 88.

As Houston's hitting and infield coach, Allen played a major role in the offensive development of Brad Lincoln, a consensus All-American who was named the National Player of the Year by four different outlets in 2006. PHILIP MILLER 12

DATE OF BIRTH October 3, 1983 HOMETOWN Clinton, La.

HIGH SCHOOL University High School (La.)
ALMA MATER Northwestern State University, 2005; MASTER'S DEGREE Sam Houston State, 2010

DATE ANNOUNCED AS ASSISTANT COACH July 1, 2016 @UTMiller12

Philip Miller has spent each of the last eight seasons as an assistant coach under David Pierce at Texas, Tulane (2015-16) and Sam Houston State (2012-14). Miller joined the Longhorns staff as assistant coach on July 1, 2016.

Miller works primarily with catchers and outfielders, and assists with both hitters and recruiting.

One of Miller's star pupils is former Tulane catcher Jake Rogers, who was one of the best defensive catchers in college baseball during his time with the Green Wave. In his career, Rogers — the Houston Astros' third-round selection in the 2016 MLB Draft and an All-AAC First Team member — gunned down 83-of-146 (.568) potential base stealers, including 27-of-43 (.628) in 2016. Tulane's three catchers also helped the pitching staff lead the nation with 13 shutouts.

In three seasons with Pierce at Sam Houston State – Miller's second stint with the SHSU program – Miller was instrumental in helping the Bearkats to each of their Southland Conference titles and NCAA Regional appearances. From 2012 to 2014, those SHSU squads racked up 40, 38 and 43 wins, respectively. The 43 wins marked the second-highest total for the Bearkats since their jump to Division I in 1987. In 2012, Sam Houston State earned national rankings in each of the major collegiate baseball polls (ranking as high as No. 20) for the first time in program history.

Miller coached the 2014 Southland Conference Player of the Year and Student-Athlete of the Year, Anthony Azar. The Bearkats' catcher, led the league in total bases (127) and ranked second in the Southland in hits (86), RBI (49) and slugging percentage (.543) and third in batting average (.368), home runs (nine) and on-base percentage (.450), on his way to being named the league's top player.

In 2010 and 2011, Miller was an assistant coach at his alma mater, Northwestern State (La.). There, he served as infield and defensive coach, while also handling first base coaching duties. During the 2010 season, he helped a league-high seven NSU student-athletes to All-Southland Conference honors.

The 2010 Demons finished second in the Southland in batting average (.322) and tied for fourth in fielding percentage (.963) while placing a league-best seven student-athletes on the All-Southland Conference honor squad. Two Northwestern State position players - Oscar Garcia and Chase Lyles - were drafted in the 2010 MLB First-Year Player Draft, the first time in NSU history that two position players were taken in the same draft.

Miller held his first assistant coaching role at Sam Houston State from 2007 to 2009 where he was the outfield and first base coach, while assisting hitters, infielders and catchers. He coached three All-Americans and six All-Southland Conference outfielders, helping guide the Bearkats to NCAA Regional appearances in each of his three seasons.

Following his playing career at Northwestern State, Miller served as a volunteer coach at his alma mater for the 2006 season. During his freshman and senior seasons, the Demons took home the regular season Southland Conference title, earning a bid to an NCAA Regional in 2005 as an at-large selection.

Tulowitzki was named an All-Star for the final time in 2015 and finished the season in Toronto after being traded to the Blue Jays in July. He helped lead Toronto to the American League Championship Series, falling just shy of the World Series.

A two-time All-American and three-time All-Conference player, Tulowitzki was selected with the seventh overall pick of the 2005 MLB Draft out of Long Beach State. In 2004, Tulowitzki was named the Most Valuable Player of the Palo Alto Regional. LONGHORNS COACHING GREATS

W.J. (UNCLE BILLY) DISCH

The late William J. (Uncle Billy) Disch, who coached the Texas Longhorns for 29 years (1911-39) and served as advisory coach for a dozen more seasons, guided Texas baseball teams to 513 victories against only 180 defeats. While compiling a career .740 winning percentage, Disch coached 20 Southwest Conference championship teams.

His outstanding service to The University, as a person and a coach, has endeared him to the memory of his players and others closely connected with Longhorns athletics. Honors that have come to him include induction into the Longhorn Hall of Honor and election to both the Texas Sports Hall of Fame and the American Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame.

While his teams competed in an era when there were no NCAA playoffs, at least six of his teams would have been in strong contention had such a prize been awarded. Among his more famous squads were 1914 (30-5), 1919 (22-3), 1924 (29-1), 1927 (16-6), 1930 (30-8) and 1939 (18-6).

Writers referred to him as the Connie Mack of college baseball, an apt sobriquet because he resembled the famous Philadelphia owner-manager both physically and strategically.

BIBB FALK

The Texas baseball program suffered its biggest loss of the 1989 season when Bibb Falk passed away on June 8 in Austin at the age of 90.

Falk, who upon his retirement in 1967 was named to the College Baseball Coaches Hall of Fame and has also been elected to the Longhorn Hall of Honor, won a pair of National Championships and 20 Southwest Conference (SWC) titles in 25 years at UT. He posted 478 career victories against 176 losses for a .730 winning percentage, and recorded a 278-84 (.768) mark in SWC games.

He also coached nine consecutive SWC championship teams from 1946-54. During that time, Texas won 111 conference games while losing only 19. That span included his two CWS title clubs in 1949 and 1950. Notably, Falk currently ranks among the top 15 Division I coaches all-time in CWS history for appearances (10), games (37), winning percentage (.541) and victories (20).

After graduating from UT in 1920 with three baseball letters, Falk went straight to the Chicago White Sox, where he replaced the legendary "Shoeless" Joe Jackson in left field. Falk had a .314 career batting average in the majors and once hit .352. He also drove in 99 or more runs in three consecutive years and led the American League in pinch hits over the final two years of his career with the Cleveland Indians.

CLIFF GUSTAFSON

As Bibb Falk prepared to retire after the 1967 season, Athletic Director Darrell Royal set out to find a replacement.

When Royal placed his first (and only) call, it was to a San Antonio high school coach by the name of Cliff Gustafson. Royal called him and said "Hello, this is Darrell Royal."

Gustafson thought to himself, "Oh yeah, well this is Roy Rogers."

Soon after, Gustafson was named to replace his mentor as Texas Baseball coach. Twenty-nine years later, Coach Gus was the all-time winningest coach in the history of NCAA Division I baseball. He guided Texas to 22 Southwest Conference (SWC) titles, an NCAA-record 17 College World Series (CWS) appearances and two national titles.

Along the way he produced countless professional baseball players and by his count several lawyers, doctors and business executives. In fact, he's just as proud to have produced three orthopedic surgeons as he is of any of the many professional players who studied under him.

Gustafson played middle infield at Texas in the early 1950s and earned a varsity letter in 1952 as he posted a career .308 batting average. After a short stint in a semi-pro league, Gustafson became a junior high basketball coach at South San ISD in south San Antonio. Following the respective firing and resignation of two coaches, Gustafson found himself being moved into the high school baseball coach position in 1955.

Thirteen years later his teams had won 12 district titles and seven state crowns. He amassed a 344-85-5 record and his 1967 squad was a perfect 39-0. Adding in six consecutive wins the year before and Coach Gus completed his high school coaching career with a 45-game win streak.

While at Texas, Gustafson set a then-NCAA record with 1,427 collegiate wins, passing up Rod Dedeaux's mark of 1,332 wins (USC) in 1994. Texas also lost only 373 games under Gustafson for a .792 winning percentage, which is currently the second-highest percentage all-time. Gustafson's 1,427 wins currently rank third in Division I baseball history.

Like his two predecessors, Gustafson is in the American Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame and was inducted into the Longhorn Hall of Honor in 1983.

Gustafson, who was inducted into the Texas Sports Hall of Fame in 1994 and received the James Keller Sportsmanship Award on November 10, 1998, also was selected National Coach of the Year twice (1982 & 1983) and won numerous SWC Coach of the Year honors as well.

Gustafson credited his success to the foundation that coaches Billy Disch and Bibb Falk laid with their 50-plus years of dedication. In a strange twist of fate, back when Gustafson played for Texas he once saw Falk speaking with a man in a wheelchair at a game. The man was William J. Disch. At that moment, the three men who would guide Texas Baseball for more than 80 years were all on the field at the same time.

LONGHORNS COACHING GREATS

AUGIE GARRIDO

During his 20 years on the Forty Acres, Garrido became the first coach in baseball history to tally 1,900 or more career victories, finishing his career with 1,975 wins. Upon his retirement following the 2016 season he was the winningest coach in all divisions of college baseball until he was surpassed by former Florida State head coach Mike Martin's 2,029 wins.

He brought Texas back to the CWS for the first time since 1993 during the 2000 campaign, and returned the Horns to the pinnacle of collegiate baseball in 2002 by leading UT to a 57-15 record that produced the school's first-ever Big 12 regular-season and tournament championships, as well as its first national title since 1983. He duplicated the feat in 2005, guiding the Longhorns to their sixth National Championship, the second-most for one school in NCAA history. Texas' rise under Garrido was the culmination of inking 17 straight top 15 recruiting classes and producing teams that have stood tall against perennial powers such as LSU, Miami (Fla.), Stanford and USC. Garrido was selected as both the 2002 and 2005 National Coach of the Year.

He was the first coach to lead teams from two different schools to national crowns (Cal State Fullerton & Texas), guide squads to National Championships in four different decades, and is one of only three coaches in history to win five or more NCAA titles (1979, 1984, 1995, 2002, 2005). Garrido was one of only four coaches in the modern era of NCAA football, baseball and men's or women's basketball to ever lead teams from two different schools to national crowns (Nick Saban, Rick Pitino and Urban Meyer). Additionally, Garrido earned 15 trips to the CWS and 33 NCAA Regional Championship appearances, including 15 at Texas, while garnering National Coach of the Year honors six times (1975, 1979, 1984, 1995, 2002, 2005), regional coach of the year accolades on seven occasions (1975, 1979, 1984, 1995, 2002, 2004, 2005) and conference coach of the year distinctions eight times (1987, 1995, 2002, 2004, 2006, 2007, 2010, 2011) after leading his clubs to 25 league crowns.

His overall record after 48 years of college coaching, including a 824-427-2 (.656) mark with UT over 20 seasons, stands at 1,975-951-9 (.673), which translates into an average of over 41 victories per season.

The Vallejo, Calif., native was named the 13th coach in UT's 120-year baseball history, and, with the exception of the war years of 1943-45 when Blair Cherry was at the helm, was only the fourth Texas head coach since 1911.

As a result of his unique coaching style, Garrido had been ranked as one of the top three baseball teachers in the nation by Major League Baseball Directors of Player Development. To deserve that distinction, Garrido coached three Golden Spikes Award winners, four National Players of the Year, six College World Series MVPs, 53 All-Americans, 14 All-League MVPs over his career. He also had 15 of his players selected in the first round of the Major League Baseball Draft, including Longhorns Beau Hale (No. 14) in 2000, Omar Quintanilla (No. 33) in 2003, both J.P. Howell (No. 31) and 2005 American League Rookie of the Year Huston Street (No. 40) in 2004, the duo of Drew Stubbs (No. 8) and Kyle McCulloch (No. 29) in 2006, Chance Ruffin (No. 48) in 2010, Taylor Jungmann (No. 12) in 2011 and Corey Knebel (No. 39) in 2013. In addition, during his 20 years at UT, Garrido tutored the skills of 27 players who have earned All-America honors a total of 34 times, 25 Freshman All-Americans, including a school-record four in 2006, 155 All-Conference performers, 11 USA Baseball National Team members and 102 players who have gone on to play in professional baseball.

UFCU DISCH-FALK FIELD HISTORY

UFCU Disch-Falk Field, recognized as one of the best collegiate baseball facilities in America, begins its 46th season of playing host to Longhorns baseball in 2020.

On August 1, 2006, University Federal Credit Union (UFCU) secured naming rights to the facility. In exchange for the naming rights, UFCU is contributing $13.1 million over 15 years toward retirement of debt that financed the recent $25 million renovation.

The renovation of UFCU Disch-Falk Field added a plethora of new seating opportunities. The lower bowl was expanded 135 feet down each foul line and field-level box seats were added between the dugouts, bringing fans closer to the action than ever before. The field also features an observation patio down the right-field line. The new design also incorporates 11 suites, making UFCU Disch-Falk Field a premier business entertainment destination.

One of the main goals of the renovation was to improve the amenities for the fans and offer a more enjoyable game-day experience. The improved UFCU Disch-Falk Field boasts more than double the amount of concession areas, box office windows and rest rooms.

Improving the aesthetics of UFCU Disch-Falk Field was also taken into consideration for the renovation. The venue features an enclosed concourse twice the size of the previous concourse, with approximately 20 feet added to the width. The stadium also features a brick and glass facade similar to that used in the renovations of Darrell K. Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium.

The renovation also added tremendous additions for the Texas baseball players with a new locker room, along with a new skills development area and indoor batting cages. New strength and conditioning, athletic training and team meeting rooms were also part of the additions.

In the fall of 2008, a FieldTurf playing surface replaced the older AstroTurf surface.

The left field foul line runs almost due north, and the right due east.

The field is located on Martin Luther King Boulevard between Comal Street and Interstate 35, just southeast of the main UT campus.

A new scoreboard and Jumbotron in left center field was installed during the final regular season games of the 2005 season while another video board was installed in right center field prior to the 2012 season.

UFCU Disch-Falk, named for two former Longhorns coaches, the late Billy Disch and the late Bibb Falk, was authorized in 1973 when it became apparent that the main campus of The University needed the land occupied by Clark Field.

The field was completed in time for the 1975 season, and it opened on February 17, 1975, when the eventual national champion Longhorns swept a doubleheader from St. Mary's by scores of 4-0 and 11-0.

The field was dedicated on April 19, 1975, when the Longhorns swept a doubleheader from TCU by scores of 18-3 and 14-0.

Old Clark Field was opened March 24, 1928, with the American League Detroit Tigers beating UT, 12-8, in an exhibition game. The final game at Clark Field was April 27, 1974, when Texas defeated Texas A&M, 4-3.

UFCU Disch-Falk Field was completed at a cost of $2.5 million, and the artificial surface in the infield area was replaced in the summers of 1979 and 1995. An entirely new artificial surface was then installed in 1985 and again in 1999.

The top crowd to see a collegiate game at UFCU Disch-Falk Field came during the NCAA Central Regional Tournament on May 19, 1982, when 8,000 fans witnessed the Longhorns' 8-0 defeat of Oklahoma. The largest crowd on record, however, watched an exhibition game between the Longhorns and the Texas Rangers on April 5, 1977. About 10,000 fans, some of whom sat on the roped-off warning track in the outfield, attended that record-setting game.

For the 2014 season, a total of 188,235 fans came to UFCU Disch-Falk Field for an average of 5,704 fans over 33 home dates. Three years prior in 2011, a total of 253,116 fans came to UFCU Disch-Falk Field for a record average of 6,490 fans.

The 2009 campaign was a record-setting season for UFCU Disch-Falk Field. For the first time ever, the Longhorns averaged over 6,000 in attendance. A total of 217,367 fans made it to 35 home dates for an average of 6,218 fans.

Prior to the 2017 season, the turf was once again replaced and along with that, the outfield fences were brought in. The outfield fence is 10 feet high (5 in left field, 20 in center field), with dimensions of 340 feet down the left field line, 325 to right and 400 to straightaway center field. In the power alleys, it drops off to 370 and 365 feet.

CLARK FIELD HISTORY

CLARK FIELD I

Clark Field served as the home of the Texas Baseball team from its beginnings in the 1890s until 1927. The field was unnamed until 1904 when The University named the field in honor of James Benjamin Clark, who served UT in several capacities since it opened in 1883.

The field was located at Speedway and East 24th Street. In the beginning, fans either stood or watched from their buggies until bleachers were built in the early 1900s. A covered grandstand was built along Speedway in 1908 to increase the seating capacity for football games. Home plate resided at the northwest corner with the first base line pointing due south. The distance to the right field wall was 350 feet while the distance to the left was only 300 feet.

The first intercollegiate game to be played at Clark Field was against Add Ran College in 1897. Texas won 25-7. Add Ran College later changed its name to Texas Christian (TCU) and moved from Waco to Fort Worth. Texas played to a 7-7 tie with St. Edward's in the first game played after the field was officially named Clark Field. The coach of St. Edward's at the time was William J. Disch, who seven years later would move to the other side of the Colorado River to coach Texas.

From 1915 to 1927, Texas would win 12 of the first 13 Southwest Conference (SWC) titles, all at Clark Field. In 1927, Texas swept TCU in the last game played at Clark Field to win the 12th title. With the conclusion of the 1927 campaign, Texas said farewell to Clark Field I.

CLARK FIELD II

When Clark Field II opened in 1928, it did so amid controversy. People were not upset with the the fact that old Clark Field was being abandoned, but rather about the name of the facility. There was very strong support to name the new field Disch Field after Texas coach William Disch.

In an editorial in the Austin American-Statesman, sports editor Duby BuBose wrote, "How could any name mean more to Texas and the entire collegiate Southwest in a baseball way than that of William Disch, we'd like to ask? It would be foolish or decidedly misfit to name the new park anything other than Disch Field."

The University cited a rule that no building or place was to be named after a living person despite the fact that UT had already named the tennis courts after Dr. D.A. Penick, who would not pass on for another 40 years.

The new facility was located at the corner of East 23rd Street and Red River Street (now East Campus Drive). It lay just north of Texas Memorial Stadium, which had been built in 1924.

Texas' first game in the new park was against the Detroit Tigers, who beat the Longhorns by a 12-8 count. University President H.Y. Benedict threw out the ceremonial first pitch in the new park in front of an overflow crowd of 3,500 fans. Texas would play its first collegiate opponent there two days later as it posted a 2-1 victory over Rice. The visit by the Detroit Tigers was just one of six different Major League teams that would take on the Longhorns at Clark Field over the next 11 years. Three of the more frequent visitors were the New York Yankees, New York Giants and Chicago White Sox.

In 1929, the Longhorns took the two-time defending world champion Yankees to the wire. With the game tied 6-6 in the top of the 9th, Lou Gehrig stood at the plate with a runner on second and two outs. Texas pitcher Mario De La Fuente worked the count to two balls and two strikes on the Yankee slugger. His next pitch appeared to be a strike and even Gehrig turned to head back for the dugout. The umpire however called the pitch a ball. On De La Fuente's 3-2 offering, Gehrig hit a monster home run that not only cleared the right field fence, but Red River Street as well. The ball came to rest in the garden of a fraternity house across from the stadium, some 580 feet from home plate.

In 1930, the Longhorns would again give the Bronx Bombers difficulty. It took a three-run double by Babe Ruth in the ninth to secure a 4-2 win for the Yankees.

Clark Field was probably one of the most unique ballparks in history. The outfield was rimmed by a small cliff about 12 to 15 feet high. Dubbed Billygoat Hill, the area above the cliff was fair territory, which usually meant a homer or triple for anyone who managed to hit a ball there. Austin American-Statesman writer George Breazeale once wrote of Clark Field, "There probably is no other man-made work of nature quite like it in America. All across this nation are former collegiate outfielders, some old and some stooped, who remember the good old days, the great games - and reserve invectives for 'Billygoat Hill'."

Over the years, several Horns developed a technique to scale the cliff and hold hits up there to long triples. One time an Aggie tried to duplicate their technique, but once atop the cliff he found himself stranded. The game was delayed a few minutes as he tried to make his way back to his position.

Texas said farewell to Clark Field in 1974 with an 11-6 victory over Lubbock Christian. In the final Southwest Conference (SWC) game at the park, Texas defeated Texas A&M 4-3, as the Longhorns won their 37th SWC title at Clark Field.

2005 COLLEGE WORLD SERIES CHAMPIONS

Returning 15 players from a team that went 58-15 and finished in second place at the College World Series (CWS) in 2004, the Longhorns began the 2005 season ranked No. 1.

With high expectations in tow, Texas lived up to its preseason ranking early on by rattling off 16 straight wins, including a three-game sweep of No. 5 Stanford at home, to open the year. Following their first loss of the season at No. 10 Arizona on March 5, the Horns proceeded to win their series with the Wildcats by a 2-1 count, earn a 7-0 victory over No. 9 Rice and post three wins over Purdue to close out their non-conference slate with a 21-1 record.

Big 12 Conference play started with three losses to No. 16 Baylor, but Texas rebounded by winning 13 of its next 15 league tilts, including series wins at No. 4 Nebraska and at Oklahoma State. Also included in that stretch was a 7-6 victory at No. 15 Rice and a three-game sweep of Oklahoma at home that included a no-hitter by redshirt freshman Adrian Alaniz, the 19th in school history.

Despite the surge, the Longhorns dropped three of their final four conference road games and settled for a third-place finish with a 16-10 mark. Texas headed to the Big 12 Tournament in Oklahoma City, Okla., with a number of players unavailable due to injuries. After dropping their opener, the Longhorns responded with wins over Kansas and Oklahoma State to move into the semifinal round. Although they battled toe-to-toe with No. 13 Baylor in the semifinals, the Bears pulled out a one-run victory and eliminated UT from the Big 12 Championship.

With a 45-14 record, the Horns received an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament. They also gained some time to rest their injured players prior to hosting one of the 16 regional tournaments at Disch-Falk Field, which included Arkansas, Miami (Ohio) and Quinnipiac.

Following an opening-round win over Quinnipiac, the Horns incurred a tough 9-2 loss to Arkansas and faced elimination. With their backs against the wall, Texas posted wins over Miami and the Razorbacks to force a deciding game in the regional against Arkansas. Scoring three unanswered runs between the sixth and eighth innings during the the clinching contest, UT broke a 2-2 tie and captured its 30th regional title with a 5-2 win. With the victory, Texas moved on to the super regional round to face No. 8 Mississippi in Oxford, Miss.

Assigned the tough task of having to take two of three games from the Rebels on the road to advance to Omaha, the Longhorns began from behind. Although they held a lead late in the opener, the game was suspended until the next day due to thunderstorms. In the resumption of that contest, Ole Miss put together an improbable four-run seventh off NCBWA Stopper of the Year J. Brent Cox en route to clinching a 6-4 victory.

Facing elimination, Texas had to pull out a victory a few hours later to keep its hopes alive. Riding the arm of Alaniz, who allowed only one run over 6.2 innings, UT built a 3-1 lead heading into the seventh. Buck Cody pitched a scoreless 1.1 frames to move the game to the ninth. The Rebels managed to load the bases with one out against Cox, but the All-American induced a game-ending double play.

The super regional now came down to one final game on June 13. While both teams scored early, the game settled down into a 3-3 tie heading into the bottom of the sixth. Will Crouch hit a solo home run and Robby Hudson added an RBI-single to give UT a 5-3 lead. Ole Miss responded with a run in the eighth, but UT came right back in the bottom of the frame with a run of its own to make it a 6-4 game. Cox came on for the ninth and with two runners on and two outs, he struck out his next batter to send Texas to its 32nd CWS appearance.

Advancing to Omaha for the fifth time in the last six seasons, the Longhorns faced a tough road with Baylor, No. 1 Tulane and Oregon State in their half of the eight-team bracket. In the opener, Texas drew the Bears who the Horns had lost to four straight times during the season.

Getting on track against No. 4 Baylor early, Texas received a first-inning, two-run home run from All-America Seth Johnston. Alaniz and Cox took care of the rest, limiting the Bears to one run on eight hits to seal a 5-1 victory.

Top-ranked Tulane was next on Texas' slate. Handed a 2-0 lead in the top of the first, UT starter Kyle McCulloch scattered six hits over seven innings and fanned seven Green Wave to combine with Cox on a 5-0 win, the Longhorns' first CWS shutout since 1983.

Needing one more win to play for the National Championship, Texas faced Baylor, once again. Trailing 3-2 in the bottom of the eighth, UT plated the tying run when Nick Peoples scored on a sacrifice fly by All-American Drew Stubbs. After a Bears' rally was averted in the top of the ninth on a diving catch by Stubbs that resulted in a double play, Chance Wheeless, who had suffered a shoulder injury earlier in the game, led off the bottom of the inning with a dramatic solo home run to lift Texas to a 4-3 victory.

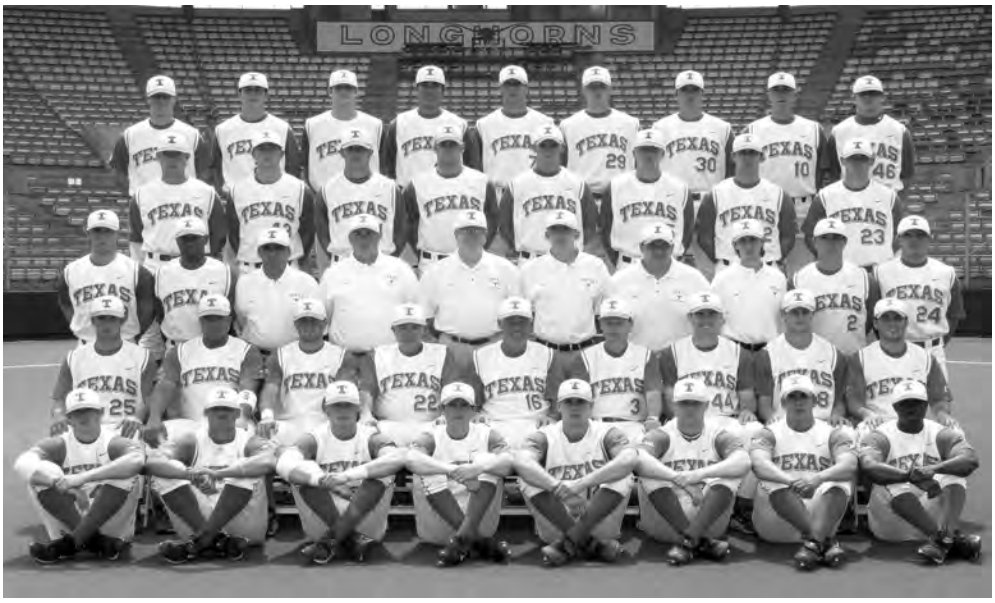
Playing for the national title for the third time in the last four years, the Horns would now face SEC Champion Florida in a best-of-three showdown to decide the 2005 crown.

In game one, Texas built a 4-0 lead by the fourth, which was more than enough for Alaniz and Cox. The pair combined to allow only two runs on four hits while striking out 11 in a 4-2 victory.

With Florida facing elimination, McCulloch delivered again. While the first-team All-Big 12 hurler held the Gators hitless through the first four innings, the Horns grabbed a 2-0 lead on a RBI-single from David Maroul in the second and an error in the fourth. Two innings later, Wheeless connected on a solo home run in front of a three-run round-tripper by Maroul to give Texas a 6-0 lead. Florida cut the lead to 6-2 in the seventh on a two-run home run, but Randy Boone and Cox worked a combined 2.1 innings of one-hit relief to seal the Horns' sixth National Championship.

Throughout the season, a different Texas player stepped up to lead the way. Accolades for the Horns included three All-Americans, two Freshman All-Americans and 16 All-Big 12 selections in addition to Augie Garrido earning National Coach of the Year for the sixth time in his career. Texas had six players named to the CWS All-Tournament team and six tabbed to the NCAA Austin Regional All-Tournament team. Taylor Teagarden earned the regional's Most Outstanding Player and Maroul picked up that same honor in Omaha.

2002 COLLEGE WORLD SERIES CHAMPIONS



Prior to the start of the 2002 season, head coach Augie Garrido hung a list of goals for the upcoming year on the wall of the Longhorns' locker room. The list read as follows: Win the Game, Win the Big 12 Conference, Win the Big 12 Tournament, Win the NCAA Regional, Win the NCAA Super Regional, Win the College World Series. While some of these goals may have seemed lofty at the start, the list revealed a process of development and a perspective to maintain throughout the course of a college baseball season. With their focus set, the Longhorns opened the campaign with a 13-2 overall record, but stumbled out of the gate in Big 12 Conference play with a 2-4 mark. Resilient in their quest for Texas' first-ever Big 12 title, the Horns rebounded by winning 17 of their next 21 conference tilts and following a series sweep over Texas A&M, finished the Big 12 season with a 19-8 record and claimed their first conference crown since 1996.

Texas headed to the conference tournament, at The Ballpark in Arlington, as the league's No. 1 seed. Texas dropped an 8-4 decision to Texas A&M in its tourney opener and had its back against the wall in the double-elimination bracket. With the odds heavily against them, the Horns proved their mettle again with wins over Oklahoma State and Texas A&M and a doubleheader sweep of Oklahoma to reach the title game against Nebraska. Tied 6-6 heading into the top of the 10th inning of the championship game, the Horns plated three runs for a 9-6 win over the Huskers and their first-ever Big 12 Tournament Championship. During its league tournament run, UT set tournament records for home runs (10) and pitcher strikeouts (47).

With two titles in hand, the Longhorns hosted their first NCAA Regional Tournament since 1996. Texas made quick work of the four-team field by claiming a 7-2 victory over Central Connecticut State in their opener and notching consecutive wins over Baylor to advance to the NCAA Super Regional round.

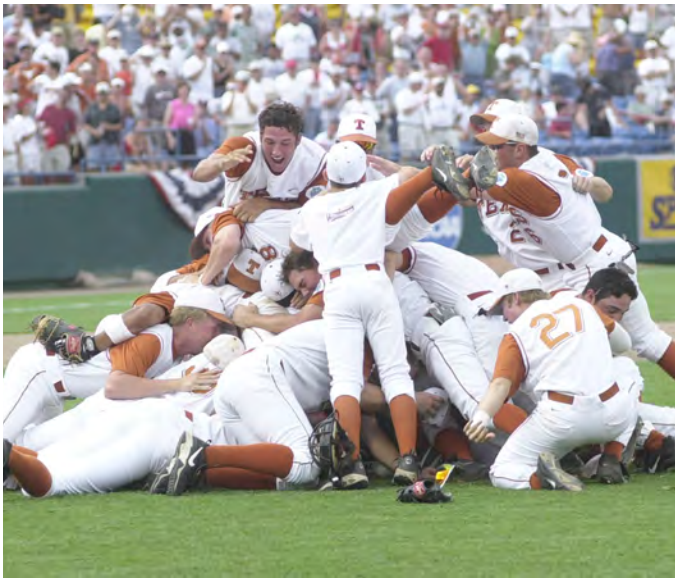
Paired against in-state rival Houston in a best-of-three series at Disch-Falk Field, Texas had to fight from behind as UH stunned the opening-game crowd of 7,209 with a 2-0 victory over the Horns. Never doubting their ability to come back, the Horns responded in game two with a 17-2 win over the Cougars to even the series at 1-1. In a winner-take-all game, UT earned a 5-2 win for the super regional title and its NCAA-record 29th CWS appearance.

In their CWS opener vs. Rice, who they had defeated twice during the season, the Longhorns posted a hard-fought 2-1 victory, giving UT its first CWS win since 1993 and the first-ever CWS victory for a Big 12 Conference school. Texas drew Stanford in the winner's bracket and pulled off an 8-7 triumph over the Cardinal, putting the Horns within one game of the championship game.

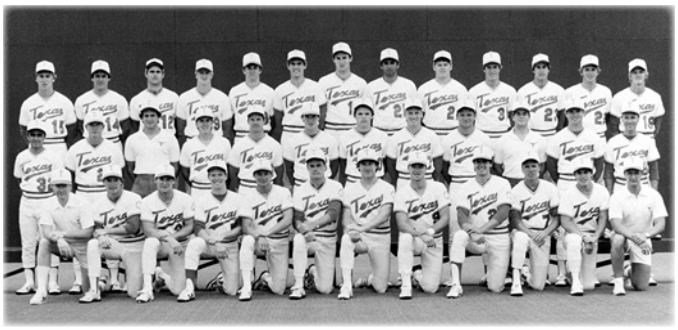
Stanford survived its elimination game, setting up a rematch between the Horns and the CWS runner-up in each of the past two seasons. The Cardinal jumped out early in this matchup, but Texas fought back and snapped a 5-5 tie in the top of the seventh with a solo home run from junior Dustin Majewski for its third one-run victory of the CWS and its first berth in the National Championship Game since 1989.

Facing South Carolina in the title game (a rematch of the 1975 national title game that UT won 5-1), Texas sent All-America left-hander Justin Simmons to the mound. After the Gamecocks took a 1-0 lead in the top of the first, the Horns jumped in front by a score of 4-2 at the end of two full frames before establishing a 7-2 advantage after a three-run home run from senior Chris Carmichael in the fifth. South Carolina pulled within 8-6 by scoring two runs in both the seventh and eighth innings, but UT answered with four more runs in the bottom of the eighth and freshman Huston Street recorded the final five outs to close out the 12-6 win and give Texas its first national title since 1983.

Street earned the CWS Most Oustanding Player Award after posting a CWS-record four saves. Simmons, Majewski and sophomores Tim Moss and Omar Quintanilla were named to the CWS All-Tournament Team. A school-record 11 Longhorns garnered All-Big 12 accolades and four others picked up All-America recognition. Finishing with a 57-15 mark Texas was led by more than just a few select individuals. The 2002 Longhorns won with teamwork and unselfishness as each player on its roster came through with big plays and clutch performances to help UT win each of the five championships that it set out to claim at the beginning of the year.



1983 COLLEGE WORLD SERIES CHAMPIONS



Some seasons are called "storybook" in the clichés of sports, and some are just beyond that. For Texas, the 1983 season still ranks in another category.

The Longhorns won their fourth national championship–their second under head coach Cliff Gustafson–in five straight games at Omaha. The championship season, however, was one where UT kept dodging bullets on the way to the throne. Texas faced elimination in the six-team regional, and then had to come from behind to win in four of its five College World Series (CWS) games.

It was Gustafson's "ragtag" army … a team that won hearts as well as games. Texas finished 66-14, playing and winning more games than any team in school history.

The Longhorns did it with the traditional Gustafson mainstays: great pitching and defense. Texas led the nation in pitching with a 2.72 staff ERA and finished fourth in team fielding with a .966 percentage.

Pitcher Calvin Schiraldi was named an All-American with a 14-2 record, and he and teammates Roger Clemens (13-5) and Mike Capel (13-1) all ranked in the nation's top 10 in victories.

Texas claimed its 56th Southwest Conference title with an 18-3 record, seizing the title in the next-to-last league series of the year.

In big moments, Texas was superb, but at other times it was not. That was the interesting enigma that was the 1983 team; it could lose a doubleheader to an unknown non-conference foe and then sweep a series against such impressive opponents as Cal State Fullerton and Arizona State.

Its heroes were many and varied. First baseman Jose Tolentino hit .339, collected 67 hits and drove in 73 runs, while Kirk Killingsworth appeared in 30 games as a reliever and had a 12-3 record. In the team's 66 wins, 16 different players delivered game-winning blows.

The club faced elimination two games into the six-team regional at Disch-Falk Field, but bounced back to beat Tulane and Pan American and toppled Mississippi State twice to advance to Omaha.

At the CWS, Texas defeated James Madison in the opener and came from behind to defeat Oklahoma State, Alabama and Michigan before scoring a 4-3 championship victory over Alabama.

By winning the College World Series in five straight games, the Longhorns became only the 10th team in NCAA history to go through the Series unbeaten.

1975 COLLEGE WORLD SERIES CHAMPIONS

It was the kind of season of which national championships are made, so it was not all that unlikely when Texas and Cliff Gustafson won the NCAA College World Series and returned the national title to UT for the first time in 25 years.

Records fell and the national championship pennant went up as the Longhorns recorded a 59-6 mark, which included a Southwest Conference record of 23-1.

In what was expected to be the toughest SWC race in years, Texas opened with a come-from-behind, extra-inning win over Houston and then stormed through the league. Only a bottom-of-the-ninth homer by Texas A&M in the season's finale kept UT from becoming the conference's first unbeaten team since 1946.

It was Texas' 50th SWC title in the league's 60 years of competition and it served as the launching pad for the Horns to sweep through the South Central Regional against South Alabama, Louisiana Tech and Pan American.

While the hitters were batting their way to records, the pitchers were chalking up a school-record 16 shutouts. Jim Gideon, who closed his Texas career with a record 40 victories, and Keith Moreland, who set numerous hitting standards, were both named All-Americans for the second time.

Another pair of stars stole the limelight as Texas claimed the national crown in Omaha. Stealing the show were sophomore Mickey Reichenbach, who was the Series' Most Outstanding Player with a .455 batting average, three doubles and a home run, and Richard Wortham, who was named to the All-Tournament pitching staff after blitzing South Carolina, 5-1, in the championship game.

Texas began the College World Series (CWS) with a 4-2 win over Oklahoma, but a 5-2 loss to Arizona State dropped the team into the loser's bracket. On the brink of elimination, the Longhorn hitters came to life, posting a .363 batting average in wins over Seton Hall (12-10) and South Carolina (17-6).

With three teams left in the Series–Texas, Arizona State and South Carolina–it was time to draw for the bye to the championship game. Texas trainer Spanky Stephens, who had started as a student trainer and had made every trip to Omaha, picked the envelope for the Longhorns. Texas received its long-awaited break as Arizona State and South Carolina had to play the elimination game.

South Carolina knocked off Arizona State, 4-1, to set up the showdown between Gustafson, who rose through a storied career as a Texas high school coach to become one of the nation's premier collegiate coaches, and Bobby Richardson, who made his way to college coaching after being an All-Star second baseman for the New York Yankees.

The tone was set early as Reichenbach hit a two-run home run in the third inning to stake Texas to a 3-0 lead. Wortham limited the Gamecocks to four hits while fanning nine batters to secure the win. Following the victory, the Longhorns returned to a cheering crowd in a packed Austin airport, bringing with them the CWS title.

CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIP HISTORY

BIG 12 CONFERENCE TOURNAMENT INFORMATION

The 2020 Phillips 66 Big 12 Baseball Championship will be held at Chickasaw Bricktown Ballpark in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, from May 20-24, 2020. For the 21st time, the four-day tournament resides in Oklahoma City, with the Los Angeles Dodgers' Triple-A facility hosting the event. Texas claimed its ¬fifth and most recent title in 2015, knocking off Oklahoma State in the championship game, 6-3. Other Champions include Baylor (2018), Kansas (2006), Missouri (2012), Nebraska (1999-2001, 2005), Oklahoma (1997, 2013), Oklahoma State (2004, 2017, 2019), TCU (2014, 2016), Texas A&M (2007, 2010-11) and Texas Tech (1998).

CHAMPIONSHIP FORMAT

After playing a two-division, pool-play format for the championship between 2006-10, Big 12 Conference athletics directors approved a proposal from the league's baseball coaches to change the format of the Phillips 66 Big 12 Baseball Championship. The event returned to a double-elimination format in 2011. The eight teams that qualify will be split into two four-team pools and will use double-elimination to determine a winner of each pool. Those winners will meet in a one-game championship. The championship will start on Wednesday, May 20, with four games. Thursday's schedule will also feature four contests, while two games are scheduled for Friday and Saturday with the potential for four contests on Saturday depending on how the bracket plays out. The Championship game will be held on Sunday. The championship is formatted to mirror the NCAA postseason which features double-elimination in its opening regional rounds. The winner of the Phillips 66 Big 12 Baseball Championship earns the league's automatic berth into the NCAA Championship ¬Field. Tickets for this year's event are available at Big12Sports.com/BuyTickets or by contacting the OKC Dodgers box office.

2009 Big 12 Tournament Champions

CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIP HISTORY

SOUTHWEST CONFERENCE HISTORY

Southwest Conference competition officially ended on May 18, 1996, with the SWC postseason baseball tournament and outdoor track & field championships. Still, the success, tradition, and excellence of the circuit live on in such events as the Olympics, solid NCAA finishes and the futures of millions of student-athletes and undergraduates who were associated with the 12 universities which composed the conference from 1914-96.

A sound Olympic tradition with more than 350 first team All-America choices in the sports of football, basketball and baseball alone, over 200 GTE/SWC CoSIDA Academic All-America choices in the sports of basketball and football, and numerous Trophy winners – five Outland Trophy winners, three Vince Lombardi Trophy recipients, one Jim Thorpe Award victor and nine decades of excellence … these are just some of the many-faceted fruits reaped by the Southwest Conference.

Little did this group know that it would leave a legacy that spanned many generations when the first organizational meeting of the proposed Southwest Conference was held at the Oriental Hotel in Dallas on May 6, 1914.

Following the 1995-96 competitive seasons of nine men's championships (the 81st consecutive year of SWC competition in two sports or more) and nine women's championships (in the SWC's 13th year of women's intercollegiate competition, starting in Sept., 1982), the SWC could boast of 64 NCAA or national wire service (football) championships in a total of 15 different men's and women's sports.

In its infancy the SWC had an even wider geographical area than the final, eight-university league. Present for the May 6 meeting were representatives from Baylor University, Southwestern University, Oklahoma A&M College (now Oklahoma State), Texas A&M College, Louisiana State University, the University of Arkansas and The University of Texas.

At a meeting of the group on Dec. 8, 1914, at the Rice Hotel in Houston, representatives from the University of Oklahoma and Rice Institute (now Rice University) entered discussions with the original seven schools. Arkansas, Baylor, Southwestern, Oklahoma, Oklahoma A&M, Texas and Texas A&M then joined the two new colleges as charter members of what was called the Southwest Intercollegiate Athletic Conference. The nation's fifth-oldest surviving collegiate conference was off and running.

By March 1915, the SWC already had its first football All-America choice in Oklahoma back Forest Geyer (1915) and had crowned Texas its first basketball team champion after the 1914-15 campaign in which the Longhorns edged Rice by a half-game for the conference title.

In 1918, Rice returned to gridiron action while Southern Methodist University permanently replaced Southwestern in the football standings. Oklahoma, which had a composite SWC football record of 10-3-1 from 1915-19 and had captured the initial championship during the 1915 season, withdrew in 1920 and was replaced during that one season by Phillips University.

Oklahoma A&M lasted until 1925 before leaving the league, but Texas Christian University entered the scene during the 1923 season. When the conference began, the annual membership fee was a nominal $10. By 1932, annual dues were fixed at $100, and the conference has remained one of the nation's best athletics bargains for almost a century.

On Nov. 24,1921, the first ex-officio "broadcast" of any sports event took place when the Texas A&M Cadets' W.A. "Doc" Tolson and Harry M. Saunders joined electrical maintenance staffer B. Lewis Wilson to produce a wireless account of a 0-0 tie between the Aggies and Texas Longhorns in football. That was followed by the first actual radio broadcast of an SWC game on Nov. 25, 1926, when General Ike Ashburn gave the play-by-play account of A&M's 28-0 victory over Texas at College Station.

As the conference moved into the 1930's and 1940's, growing and maturing programs in all areas – from track and field to baseball to tennis to swimming and diving – were taking shape for the seven teams who survived the comings and goings and formed the crux of the SWC until Texas Tech entered in 1958. Houston later gained admission into the SWC for the 1972-73 academic year (competing for the first time in football in 1976). The SWC would also enjoy some of its most nationally-successful football seasons (four wire service national championships from 1963-70) since SMU, TCU and Texas A&M captured American college grid titles from 1935-39.

The settling effect brought with it the need to have a full-time office, headed by an Executive Secretary (later re-titled Commissioner). In 1938, Dr. P.W. St. Clair assumed a part-time position as the SWC's first Executive Secretary and served in that position until May, 1945. He was followed by James H. Stewart (1945-50), the conference's first full-time Executive Secretary), Howard Grubbs (1950-73), Cliff Speegle (1973-82), Fred Jacoby (1982-93) and Steven J. Hatchell (1993-95). Kyle Kallander was named the sixth Commissioner of the SWC in June of 1995.
